

JOB POSTING – SERVICE TECHNICIAN

Employees of JADE+ have the opportunity to be part of our growth while gaining excellent experience, having the opportunity to learn and develop and be challenged daily. JADE+ also offers competitive remuneration, comprehensive benefits packages, technical development, team building events and recognition of achievements. If you like pushing your knowledge limits, thinking outside the box and solving real problems, JADE+ is the place for you.

The job of the Service Technician is to repair and service the hydraulics, electrical and mechanical components of aerial devices and machinery. They must also have the ability to troubleshoot issues and install new components.

PRIMARY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Repair and/or service aerial and shop equipment with hydraulic, electrical and mechanical issues following company guidelines.
- Inspection of machinery and equipment to meet industry standards, including dielectric testing.
- Operation of aerial devices and machinery to troubleshoot and diagnose issues.
- Read mechanical and electrical schematics.
- Installation of new components on existing aerials and machinery.
- Perform others duties including shop maintenance as required.
- Some road service trips and overnight trips required.

EXPERIENCE REQUIRED:

- Previous mechanic experience, with heavy machinery and/or aerial devices.
- Must be able to read, write and comprehend English.
- Proficient with the use of computers and Microsoft Office.
- Valid G Driver's license required.

To learn more and see if JADE+ is a good fit for you please visit our website at www.jadeplus.ca.

To apply, please send a unique one page cover letter describing why you are an ideal candidate for the position and a brief list of your career goals with your resume using our online form at jadeengineers.com/careers/ or email to careers@jadeplus.ca.